EMPLOYEE RECORDS - FREEDOM OF INFORMATION AND PROTECTION OF PRIVACY ACT

Adopted and Codified: June 28, 1995

Last Revised: June 19, 2013

Description:

Guidelines

1. The employee record consists of all personal information collected or maintained by the District pertaining to the employee. The employee file shall be maintained by the Personnel Department, but employee records may exist in other locations.
2. Access to an employee's personal information can be gained during normal business hours upon appointment with the Personnel Department. An employee's personal information is available to:
 - i) the employee, in the presence of a supervisor or the Personnel Manager or designate;
 - ii) other parties, such as legal counsel of the employee with the specific written consent of the employee;
 - iii) an employee's supervisor.
3. Confidentiality must be protected by each employee who is authorized to have access to the personal information of other employees

Removal or Correction of Employee Record Entries

1. The Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act gives employees the right to request that personal information on file be removed or corrected. This procedure is not intended to be in conflict with, or supersede, an employee's rights outlined in a collective agreement.

Under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act:

1. Employees may request the District to correct or remove entries in their personal records. Such a request must be made in writing, either on forms provided or in a letter.
2. The Personnel Department, upon receiving such a request, will make a recommendation to the Information and Privacy Coordinator, who may consult with the Superintendent/CEO before making a decision.
3. If the District denies the request, the applicant shall be informed of the right to appeal to the Commissioner of Information and Privacy.

Retention of Employee Records.

1. Employee records shall be maintained for the periods outlined in Board Policy and Regulations.
